

To analyze the different types of servers using webalizer

AIM:

To install configure and use webalizer to analyze web server log file and generate statistical report

PROCEDURE:

- setup a linux system with an Apache or nginx and install webalizer
- locate the web server access log files
- configure webalizer to analyze log files
- generate and open the statistical report in a browser
- Examine visitor counts, pages, views hits and HTTP status codes

Results:

Web server logs were analyzed using webalizers and website usage statistical were generated.